

Tell the Easter Resurrection Bible story using the word 'Startling'

- Startling: Mary makes a startling discovery: the grave is empty.
- Starting: She is starting to wonder: "What has happened here?"
- Staring: And now Mary is staring at the stone that has been rolled away.
- String: All the clothes are neatly folded up. Not a loose string in sight.
- Sting: Mary is feeling the sting: "Has someone stolen the body?"
- Sing: But then she meets the risen Lord and she wants to sing, because she discovers "Jesus is alive".
- Sin: Now she knows what happened on the cross; Jesus has broken the power of death and sin.
- In: And through His resurrection everyone who believes in Him can be part of Gods family.
- I: What do I do? Everybody needs to know. So Mary goes on her way to tell the disciples.

This is just a short summary. You can make it as elaborate as you want.
